

Roxanne Gleave

I am a resident of Croydon.

Currently I have an interest in historical research and anything of community interest is posted on a basic website. The above does not offer a financial service and therefore is not registered with Companies House.

My initial involvement with CAFCO started over 20 years ago.

I have experience of the education system as a mature student and also as a pupil, parent, Governor and in a professional capacity in both Inner London and Outer London schools.

I have a BA (Open University), MA (Goldsmiths) and a teaching qualification with official Dfes/QTStatus –Cert. Ed (Roehampton).

I also have a TEFL Academy - Course certificate (English as a foreign language).
